

Jim Hosey

NBAA SMC

jim@avsafetycompliance.com
www.avsafetycompliance.com
401-578-5342 Mobile

Aviation Safety Experience

Co-Founder/President, Aviation Safety Compliance, LLC

January 2023 to Present

- Expanding the expertise of providing safety related services to all Parts of the FAA and International operator community
- Provide specialized safety services, safety consulting, Gap Analysis evaluation, auditing to FAA and International SMS standards
- Conduct Business Aviation Safety Consortium (BASC) and Air Charter Safety Foundation (ACSF) preparation and auditing, crisis action and management plans, incident and accident investigations, technical support, creation and maintenance of confidential reporting systems, safety risk profile and safety performance indicator preparation and overall SMS reporting structures
- Extensive client list, business/corporate flight operators and manufacturers, public utilities (gas and electric), OEM service centers, and the world's largest oil company.

President/Founder, Aviation Consulting/Audits, LLC

March 2013 to Present

- Jim has been retained by many of the fortune 500 flight departments in the US as an interim Safety Manager bridging the gap when departments have a void in personnel
- Experienced in providing safety consultation, Gap Analysis, incident/accident investigations
- Provides safety audits for the top safety standards based on US and ICAO aviation standards
- Certified Aviation Auditor for Safety Management System and compliance programs conducting operational audits, investigations, inspections
- Provides training in best safety practices for business and corporate operations

Ratings and Certifications

- Airline Transport Pilot, CE-650, CE-750, L-382
- Airplane Multiengine
Land/Airplane Single Engine Land
- T-34 Mentor Wingman and Formation Certified

Auditor

- ACSF auditor
- LOSA auditor
- BASC auditor

Public Appearances and Speaking Engagements

- Air Charter Safety Foundation presentations on Safety Management Systems Workshop
- Presenter at the Bombardier Safety Stand down 2019 & 2022
- Presented the NBAA top focus areas to the American Association of Airport Executives
- Guest speaker at many General Aviation Safety Stand Downs across the US

Aviation Safety Experience (cont.)

President/Founder, Aviation Consulting/Audits, LLC

January 2014 to 2016

- Jim was Director of Safety Management, Baldwin Aviation Safety and Compliance Company working with Part 91, 91K, 135, 121, 125, 133, 145 and EMS Helicopter Operators.
- Over saw the Baldwin Safety Portal managing many clients and providing training for their safety portal with tools for data collection
- Ran the Emergency Response Plan exercise for the organization
- Often assisting company clients prepare for their external safety audits around the world

Corporate Pilot for a fortune four Corporate Flight Department (Part 91)

March 1998 to December 2013

- Directed the first Safety Management System for his department becoming the 13th company registered world wide with IS-BAO
- Senior International Captain, coordinating the Safety Management System processes, conducting internal and external audits, coordinating the Emergency Response Planning and Emergency Operations Center

Aviation Experience in Aircraft Systems

- Experienced in over 10 civil/military aircraft: military trainers, heavy transport, and light civil aircraft
- Pilot in Command of C-130, C-5 (Instructor), CE-650, CE-750 with over 15,000 hours of control time
- Extensive military experience in commanding bare base airlift operations on a large scale, airbase/airport management analysis and strategic airlift, airport and airbase security programs and measures
- Certified in Airfield Inspections and Airfield Management
- Accident Investigator – Fixed Wing/Rotary Wing Aircraft
- Experienced in, Part 91, Part 133, Part 135, Part 137, Part 139, Part 147, Part 121 Cargo, Part 5, Part 145, Part 61, and Part 65, CAR 604, CAR 703
- Experienced in Part 107 UAS operations for inspection of Utility Lines
- Experienced in Offshore Oil Rig Fixed Wing and Helicopter Operations for a large in country operator (Saudi Arabia) in the Arabian Sea
- Experienced in Fixed Base Operations (FBO) Safety and Security
- Trained in the T-34 Mentor flying formation flights for civilian and military events

Military Experience

- 30 yrs military flight operations
- Commander for multimillion-dollar budgets
- Vice Wing Commander, 439th Airlift Wing (KCEF) retiring as a full Colonel
- Chief Pilot and Operations Officer for a C-5 airlift squadron with international impact
- Commander of heavy airlift operations at Baghdad International Airport during Iraqi Freedom in 2003
- Tactical Airlift Commander having operationally deployed providing bare base airlift control around the world
- Lead senior officer during several operational C-5 inspections throughout his Air Force career

Education

- Norwich University, Northfield, VT Bachelor of Science
- Military Air War College Graduate
- Graduate of Air Force Advance Airlift Control Warfare Program and Airfield Management
- NBAA Safety Committee member for over 13 years
- NBAA Business Aviation Safety Working Group developing the NBAA Safety Manager Certificate Program
- Contributed to a Runway Safety and Procedural Non-Compliance document for an NBAA Safety Committee initiative
- Completed the NBAA Safety Manager Certificate Program, 2022
- Completed many aviation safety courses throughout career